Ratliff

rooted in people

Tricia Graham is the Career Transition Engagement Consultant at Ratliff. She manages the initial engagement of candidates and enrolls them into their respective programs.

Tricia is often referred to as “the voice of Ratliff” as she is the first point of contact to the candidates who have been affected by employment loss. She understands that this is a very sensitive and emotional time in their lives and takes this seriously. This is a fulfilling role as she connects on a personal level and is invested in their long-term job search success. The candidates have a feeling of relief once Tricia reaches out, as they know they have support to launch a successful job search.

Tricia has over 25 years of experience in customer service, sales, and administration, and has been with Ratliff & Company for over seven years.

Outside of Ratliff & Company, Tricia enjoys playing tennis and entertaining others with her unique storytelling.
