rooted in people

Stacy Urbanic is a Senior Consultant with Ratliff's Executive Search team. Her personality and energy allow her to quickly build meaningful and lasting relationships with clients, colleagues, and candidates. She brings a robust technical background and experience in varied functional disciplines and industries.

With over 15 years of experience as a professional recruiter, Stacy has previously worked in both 3rd party and internal search roles. She began her career in retail management and discovered a passion for talent acquisition. This led to her time in 3rd party staffing where she was promoted three times in three years due to consistently being a top performer. Prior to joining Ratliff & Company, Stacy was a Senior Recruiter with Quadax, Inc. She gained expertise in healthcare and IT recruitment and was responsible for all aspects of the recruiting process for Director/VP level roles.

Having been in corporate recruitment, Stacy is able to understand the needs of clients and exceed their expectations. She is highly endorsed by her peers for her excellent sourcing capabilities, attention to details, and for creating an exceptional candidate experience.

Outside of work, Stacy is often covered in flour and sugar. Her Kolachy cookies are legendary with friends and family. But Stacy's not just a one-trick pony in the kitchen. This book-loving, cookie-baking phenom devours an astonishing 60 books a year.
